Box 58

(1.)
Carl Appleby.

- Grammar -

When I was a child of seven years old, my friends, on a holiday, filled my pocket with copper. I went directly to a shop where they sold toys for children; and, being charmed with the sound of a whistle that I heard by the way in the hands of a boy, I voluntarily offered and gave all my money for one. I then came home and went whistling all over the house, much pleased with my whistle, but disturbing all the family. My brothers, and sisters, and cousins, understanding the bargain I had made, told me I had given four times as much for it as it was worth; put me in mind of what good things I might have bought with the rest of the money; and laughed at me so much for my folly, that I cried with vexation; and the reflection gave me more
