Dr. E. M. Gallaudet

Dear sir, as my father was thinking of sending me to the D & D college of which you are president. I now take my pen to ask you what the terms are, and what it generally costs a student per year.

I am a semi-mute; having lost my hearing at the age of 13. I have attended the Ontario institution for the Deaf + Dumb for 4 years, and I have graduated the session just closed. If you will kindly send me a circular of the college together with an estimate of the probable cost per year you would greatly oblige me.

yours sincerely

President Gallaudet - Sir:

I would be placed under many more obligations to you if you could give me a letter of recommendation to the agents of the Wabash, St. Louis, & Pacific Ry, that will enable me to get a ticket from St. Louis home at reduced rates.

I have to go such a long distance (nearly 1400 miles) that it is necessary for me to the best I can towards lessening the expenses.

Very truly your humble servt.
Asa A. Gray.
