Dear Sir

I have a letter from you from which I am surprised to learn that you had bought on credit some athletic goods (as you call them) to the amount of $1200. I cannot understand why any dealer should credit a boy with that amount, particularly one who must be a total stranger. But for some reason he seems to be able to get anything he wants on credit. As I do not want him scammed & worried over this matter, I enclose you only for $12.00 and would be glad if you would invest gate and see if correct. If so please pay the same and kindly notify the parties that if they credit him further it will be at their risk.

I have noticed with great satisfaction in the last few months a marked improvement in his letters in both penmanship and composition and I am really proud of them.

Thanking you for kindness I attend to him and hoping that some time during vacation I see with Mrs Fowler and Miss Gordon may pay us a visit & remain

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

You were so good as to address a letter on the 24th ultimo to Sir Julian Pauncefote giving certain further information in regard to the United States College for deaf mutes. The letter was handed to Lord Gough, it was, most unfortunately, mislaid.

Would it be troubling you too much to ask you to supply

Dear Sir: Ellsworth Long showed me a recent letter of yours written in answer to his request for a recommendation.

As I am interested in his application I take the liberty of writing you in order to suggest that you can give him substantial aid by writing a letter to the Board of State Charities, Topeka, Kan. in his behalf. Make it as strong as you can, consistent with the facts.

The Board will have a number of applicants and will not be likely to write you as you suggested in your letter to Mr. Long.

I have no other interest in the matter except to help a deserving and unfortunate man.

Please lend him your aid.

Very truly yours,

O. O. Outcalt.
