Box 37

Pittsburg, Penna., July 2nd, 1901,

Dear Mr. Fowler:

I would like to know what is the matter with the registered letter I sent back to Wash., D.C., last week.

I thought this place would be cooler than Wash., D.C., but I have not found myself escape from sweating in torrents in a single day since

I came home - However, I hope it will be over soon, and hope the same in Wash., D.C. hoping you enjoy the best of health and have a nice time during your vacation. I remain

Yours Very Truly,
Samuel Nichols.

My dear Mr. Fowler:-

Mr. Lucas took some books to one of the freight houses (B & O I think) for me to be shipped C. O. D. to me in Marion, Ind. There were two boxes of them and am rather anxious about them. I cannot learn anything here and wish you to see what you can find out in Washington. They were plainly marked -

A. H. Norris,
Marion,
Ind.

Please let me hear from you soon,

Yours truly,
A. H. Norris,

Dr. E. M. Gallaudet;
 Kendall Green,

Dear Sir: If you can arrange to send us a check for our account with the College by Friday next we will thank you. We have some heavy payments to make at that time and your check will help us.
 The amount is $47⁵⁰ of which you have the bills.

Thanking you in advance we are

Very truly yours

Mr. W. G. Fowler,

Dear sir: -

I have a last found my book but cannot get them without the bill-of-lading lading for same. Will you please see if you can find it or get a duplicate.

We have had no rain for six long weeks and it is awful hot here. Hope for the sake of my friends in Washington that it is warmer there.

Hoping to hear from you soon I am

yours faithfully,
A. H. Norris.

Dr. E. M. Gallaudet,

Washington D.C.

Dear Sir:-

I drop you this to inquire if I can enter college at the opening of the first term instead of in January as I originally proposed to, so I can go over my first term studies again, and devote my spare time to some special study I might take up, all which is impossible here.

Awaiting an early answer,
I remain,

Very Truly yours,
E. M. Nowell.
