EUREK RECEIVES CONFERENCE HONORS

Bison quarterback, Ken Eurek, recently received an honorable mention on the 1971 Mason-Dixon Conference All-Star football team. Ken, a junior physical education major from Arcadia, Nebraska, passed for 1021 yards in eight games, completing 92 out of 208 attempts for a 44.2 percentage. This marks the first time a Gallaudet quarterback has broken the 1000 yard mark passing.

1904-1906 STUDENT RETURNS FOR A VISIT

Earl Elder, a farmer from Muscatine, Iowa, made his first trip back to Gallaudet on December 22, 1971 since leaving in 1906. Accompanied by his wife, who also attended Gallaudet for a year, and his granddaughter, who lives in Prince Georges County, Mr. Elder brought with him a scrap book which he compiled during his student days.

Mr. Elder, who became deaf at nine months as a result of scarlet fever, attended the Iowa School for the Deaf in Council Bluffs, Iowa, before entering Gallaudet. Active in sports all of his life, Mr. Elder has won the Iowa State Championship and numerous bowling trophies. He also proudly told us that he is the oldest member of the Men's Bowling Association in Muscatine and is still playing horseshoes.

After reminiscing with Wallace Eddington, a graduate of the Class of 1915, he and his family left with Mr. Edington for a brief tour of the campus and lunch.

DISCOUNTS AT JFK CENTER

Despite conflicting stories in the press, the Specially Priced Ticket Program at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, continues to provide tickets at a 50% discount to students and all deaf persons. Half priced tickets are currently available for Story Theatre at the Eisenhower Theatre which will run through Saturday, January 8 and other performances in the Opera House and Concert Hall.

Flyers detailing monthly performances which are included in the discount policy are posted outside of the Visitors' Center in Chapel Hall, the Dean of Student's Office in Hall Memorial and the cafeteria in the Student Union.

AROUND AND ABOUT

The Student Union cafeteria, closed during the Christmas recess, will reopen for lunch on Wednesday, January 12. Meals will continue to be served during the vacation period in the Rathskeller from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.... The new phone number, 4600, for the Psychology Department and Office of Institutional Research is for TTY calls only....It seems that all the kinks are finally out of the Public Services TTY news program. The service is operational on a 24-hour basis and can be reached by calling 543-1274....Frances Parson's book, The Sound of the Stars, is now available at the Bookstore for $5.95....COSD has investigated group air fare rates from Washington to Memphis for the FORUM meeting in March. If you are interested in participating in such a flight, please contact Jean Buchanan in the Dean's Office by January 14, 1972.

JUDGES NAMED FOR MISS GALLAUDET PAGEANT

A nine-member panel has been named to judge the Miss Gallaudet Pageant to be held on January 28 here on campus. Scheduled as part of the National Association of the Deaf Cultural Week Activities, the contest is an official preliminary to the Miss Deaf American Pageant in Miami, Florida, in July.

The judges are: Beatrice Burke, '58; Julianna Corrado, '70; Carol Garretson, G-'68; Virginia Lewis; Mary Jane Rhodes; Donald G. Pettingill; Frederick C. Schreiber, '42; David Denton; and Alan B. Crammatte, '32.

Of the 22 coeds competing for the Miss Gallaudet title, ten semi-finalists will be selected to be judged on appearance in an evening gown and a cocktail dress and performance in a talent competition on January 28. Five finalists will then take part in a question and answer period before the judges select the winner.

Special guest star will be Audree Bennett Norton, '52, who will perform the song "New Horizons" in sign language. A former member of the National Theatre of the Deaf company, Miss Norton has appeared on several TV programs, including "Mannix" and "The Man and the City."

Master and mistress of ceremonies will be Gilbert Eastman, '57, and Brenda Underwood, '74, Miss Junior NAD of 1968. Dr. Boyce R. Williams, '32, will crown Miss Gallaudet.

BEWARE...

...of runaway tractors, open ditches, flying mud and wolf whistling construction crews --- the laying of new electrical conduits and sewage and water lines has begun in earnest. Sigh!!!! Hopefully we will see grass again by spring.

ON THE GREEN is published for the members of the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Alumni-Public Relations Office. Campus news is always welcome. Phone or TTY 3326.
