

12-6-1972

On the Green Vol. II No. 7 December 6, 1972

On the Green

Follow this and additional works at: https://ida.gallaudet.edu/onthegreen_1971-1980

Recommended Citation

On the Green, "On the Green Vol. II No. 7 December 6, 1972" (1972). 1971-1980. 57.
https://ida.gallaudet.edu/onthegreen_1971-1980/57

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the On the Green at IDA@Gallaudet. It has been accepted for inclusion in 1971-1980 by an authorized administrator of IDA@Gallaudet. For more information, please contact james.mccarthy@gallaudet.edu.

On the Green

DECEMBER 6, 1972
VOL. II, NO. 7

GALLAUDET DAY

In commemoration of the birthday of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, a special wreath laying ceremony will be held in front of Chapel Hall on Friday, December 8 at 7:30 a.m.

Born in Philadelphia on December 10, 1787, Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, for whom the College was named in 1894, founded the first public school for the deaf in the United States.

Faculty, staff, and students are welcome to participate in the ceremonies. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carney, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schreiber have been invited as special guests.

ON CAMPUS THIS WEEK

---Mary Evans, a teacher of the deaf-blind from England who has been teaching at Perkins School for the Blind as part of an HEW sponsored exchange program

---A group of 30 special education interns from the D.C. Department of Education

---The 50 member choir from the Roanoke Bible College in Elizabethtown, North Carolina

EVENTS AND PEOPLE

Sam Jones, a junior from Texas, has been invited to the Apollo 17 launch Wednesday night at Cape Kennedy by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration....Dr. Robert Clayton, director of the University Affiliated Programs of Georgetown Hospital, will discuss "DNA-RNA 1972: Present and Future" at the Gallaudet Colloquium on Friday, December 8 at 3 p.m. in Hall

Memorial Building, room 213....Frank Turk was recently made an honorary colonel and aide-de-camp of Mississippi by Governor William Lowe Waller. The citation honors Frank for his "Patriotism, conduct and loyalty, as well as integrity and readiness to do good service to the state."...The Cultural Affairs Committee is sponsoring the "Broken Jug," a German film with subtitles, on December 12 at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CLERK-TYPIST (PART-TIME): Audiology and Speech

RESEARCH ELECTRONICS ASSISTANT:

Sensory Communication Research Lab
SECURITY OFFICER: Office of General Services

BUS MONITOR: Kendall School

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

IN SUPPORT OF CHANGE

The Consumer-Welfare Commission of Change, Inc. requests your support in establishing a clothing bank for needy persons in the community.

Since many persons do not have sufficient clothing to seek employment or to provide proper clothing for school age children, any contribution of clean, usable items including small household articles will be greatly appreciated.

Please take clothing to 3308 14th Street, N.W. between the hours of 9 and 5:30.

SPECIAL DRAMA PROGRAM

The Gallaudet College Theatre will

...taking to the road this week with a new production of poetry, song, mime, and acts.

The company of "A Visual Symphony" is under the direction of Gil Eastman and includes: Alan Barwiolek, Linda Cox, Anna Eads, Billie Jordan, Pauline Panbauer, and Steve Turner. Jeff Grandel and Jo Tracy are readers for the group.

The special program will be performed at: Princeton Theological Seminary on

December 7

New York County Vocational-Technical High School for the Council on the Deaf on

December 8

Army-Navy Club for the D.C. Chapter of the National Secretaries Association on December 12

The Gallaudet community is invited to see the performance on December 13 at 6 p.m. in the Auditorium. The evening's program will include in addition to "A Visual Symphony" a presentation of "Riders to the Sea" directed by George Detmold. There will be no charge for the performance at Gallaudet.

WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE

The Alumni Office has lost track of two of our alumni, Richard Lane and Deborah Games.

If any one has an up-to-date address for either of these two persons, we would appreciate your sending it to the Alumni Office.

GOVERNMENT DAY

Twenty-four federal agencies will be presented on campus today at the annual Government Day Program sponsored by the Placement Office.

Following a presentation on "Sign Language in Poetry and Drama" by Gil Eastman and a panel discussion, Gallaudet students will have an opportunity to informally meet with these personnel representatives. Among those agencies to be participating are: Department of Agriculture, Securities and Exchange Commission, Department of Interior, Treasury Department, Federal Power Commission, and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

BISON CAGERS MEET GEORGE MASON WITH A WINNING RECORD

With a two win and one loss record, the Gallaudet basketball team will meet George Mason on December 7 at 8 p.m. in the Hughes Memorial Gym. Before leaving for the Christmas and semester break, the Bisons will be playing:

--12/9: Bowie at Gallaudet, 8 p.m.

--12/11: D.C. Teachers at Gallaudet, 8 p.m.

12/13: Strayer at Gallaudet, 8 p.m.

AND SPEAKING OF BASKETBALL

Peter Wisher brought to our attention a clip he received from the Bloomsburg Morning Press:

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

One of the strongest basketball teams in the East will be seen in action when Coach Josh Cody brings his Temple University Owls to Bloomsburg for a clash with Coach Pete Wisher's Bloomsburg State Teachers Huskies.

OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST

--Mrs. Louise Tracy, the founder of the John Tracy Clinic in Los Angeles, was recently honored by Ralph Edwards on "This Is Your Life." The program is shown in the Washington area on Sunday evenings at 10:30 on Channel 5 and is scheduled sometime after December 3.

--Parents of deaf children are invited to receive the newsletter of the National Special Education Information Center. Write to: Closer Look Newsletter, Box 19428, Washington, D.C. 20036.

--According to the National Census of the Deaf Population, two per 1,000 persons in the United States have been deafened prior to age 19.

ON THE GREEN wants YOUR news. Call us at 396 or TTY 470.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy