SYMPOSIUM ON DEAFNESS TO BE HELD

The first Gallaudet Symposium on Research Related to Deafness will be held on May 4, from 9-5 p.m. in the Gallaudet Room of the Library.

Papers from five academic fields will be presented. The goal of the symposium is to encourage the sharing of ideas and the investigating of the possibility of an interdisciplinary approach to studying deafness. The discussion promises to be lively in light of the Sign Language Conference which will be held the preceding week.

For more details, contact Trent Batson at 336 or 355.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--The Potomac Chapter of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf will be holding its annual spring meeting on April 27th at 4 p.m. in the Calvary Lutheran Church, Georgia Avenue and the Beltway. A potluck dinner will follow the business meeting.

Please give Leslie Fiordano a call at 422-1693 for details about contributing to dinner. If you need a babysitter, call Carol Deninger (577-6513), or if you need a ride or can offer a ride, call Carol Pace (362-2962).

--Need a house sitter? Three Gallaudet students -- Ernie Epps, Jeff Lewis and Richard Suiter -- will be working in D.C. this summer and would like to house sit for you if you plan to be away. Contact Richard at P.O. Box 1204 or TTY him at Krug Hall.

--The annual Awards Day will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 23 at 6:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. The ceremony has been scheduled at 6:30 p.m. in order to give you an opportunity to have supper with the students in the cafeteria. Dinner is served from 4:30-6:30 p.m. and costs $1.85 per person.

If you would like to attend, please give Jeanne Conway a call in the Library prior to April 15.
