SUMMER SIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES

A series of courses on the basic, intermediate, advanced and interpreting levels will be offered by the Office of Sign Language Programs from July 8 to August 16. Two-week workshops for interpreters and teachers of sign language will also be given.

Daytime classes will be scheduled from 1-3 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday (depending on minimum class enrollment), and evening classes will be given twice weekly from 6:30-9:30 p.m.

Interested faculty and staff are asked to call ext. 835 for further information. Classes are open to the general public.

WELCOME ABOARD!

Stanley Ray, Thomas Browne and Robert Milburn: Physical Plant...Michael Opauski: Educational Technology...Larry Witner, Fern Reisinger, William Wiles and Chuck Pennington: Student Affairs...and Laura Grove: Continuing Education.

Sheila Berman, Karen Bachman, Susanna Oliver, Carol Padden and Pamela Pullen, students from California State University, are joining the Linguistics Research Laboratory this summer as research assistants.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--Kendall Demonstration Elementary School will hold an Honor Day on June 17, for 25 students who have successfully completed Kendall's program. Twenty-four of the 25 students will be staying on campus and continuing their studies at MSSD. Don Pettingill will speak to the group.

--Mrs. Leon Jaworski, wife of Watergate special prosecutor, visited MSSD last Wednesday. Mrs. Jaworski, who has a deaf brother, was particularly interested in MSSD's Off-campus Studies Program.

--A number of Gallaudet faculty, staff and their spouses attended a special showing of closed captions which was arranged for Senator Charles Percy of Illinois at the L'Enfant Plaza headquarters of the Public Broadcasting Service on June 3. Senator Percy, who has a modest hearing loss, has shown interest in the captioning technique.

--Nancy Strizver from MSSD has a beachfront studio apartment in Puerto Rico which she would like to rent to interested Gallaudet faculty and staff members this summer. Tennis courts, a swimming pool and a gymnasium are available. Call Nancy in the evenings at 953-2815 or TTY her during the day at MSSD.

--A home is needed for a nine month old German Short Hair Pointer. Congenitally deaf, the dog has its shots and is registered. If interested see Cisco in the Bank.

GOING TO THE NAD CONVENTION?

If so, please let us know in the Alumni and Public Relations Office. Gallaudet is sponsoring an informal gathering at the convention on July 3. We want to make sure that all Gallaudet people attending are on our invitation list.

EMMY GIVEN TO ROCK GOSPEL

WETA's production of Rock Gospel has recently won an award in the category of "specials" in competition among Washington-Baltimore television stations. This award is a local Emmy given for quality broadcasting.

The program, which was produced in co-operation with our Educational Technology Department, will be aired this month over the Eastern Educational network.

MSSD GRADS CONTINUE THEIR EDUCATION

After four years of operation, MSSD appears to be fulfilling its mission to help prepare more deaf teenagers for entrance into post-secondary educational programs.

This year 24 of 31 graduates from MSSD were accepted into programs such as Gallaudet College, the National Technical Institute for the Deaf, the Community College of Philadelphia, California State University at Northridge, St. Petersburg Junior College and the St. Paul Technical Vocational Institute.
