HAL GOULD TO SPEAK TO LIONS CLUB

Syndicated columnist and friend of Gallaudet College, Hal Gould, will speak to the Alexandria-Potomac Lions Club on March 23, 1977. His talk, "I Crashed the Sound Barrier," is based on his own experiences in meeting and learning to know deaf people and his contagious excitement about sign language as a mode of expression. Known for his hunches, Hal makes a prediction that more and more people will be crashing the sound barrier.

STAFF DEVELOPMENT SEMINARS PLANNED

----A seminar on "Risk Management" offered through the Staff Development Program will be held on March 17, from 9:30 - 12:00 in the Cardroom. The seminar will be led by Glenn Compton, Kevin Berk, (both from the Contracts & Operations Services Dept.) and Mr. Ralph Lee, (representing the Hartford Insurance Company),

----James E. Brammer, Esq., will conduct a seminar on "Legal Issues Facing the Administrator" on March 21, 1977 from 10:00 - 12:00 in the Cardroom. The session will focus on administrative legal problems in an academic environment.

----If you missed out on the "Speedwriting" seminar offered last month, you may still register for courses run by Lacaze-Gardner. Classes are scheduled after office hours. and there is only limited space... hurry! For more information on these seminars contact Consuelo Misa, extension 581.

"WHITE COLLAR CRIME AND THE COMMUNITY"

A conference on "White Collar Crime and the Community" will be held at American University on March 17, from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. All are cordially invited to attend. Admission is free and the panels will be open to questions from the floor. For further information contact Ms. Clairice Somerville, 667-4970.

"ENERGY CONSERVATION", WHAT DO YOU THINK???

Last week I mentioned that we would be discussing energy conservation and I have been asking everyone I know, "What do you think?"

*Paul Thompson, Personnel--"I think that most of the people on campus have been observing the energy conservation policies."

*Lolly Gilbert, Alumni/Public Relations--"If it's really hot, why not shut off your radiator before you open your windows?"

*Frank Turk, Director of Youth Relations--"I do my share and I hope others will do theirs."

*Edward Merrill--"The matter of energy conservation requires team work. The College will do what it can to control the use of energy and we hope that each individual will assume personal responsibility for doing his part."
