THE PLANNING OFFICE IS MOVING!!

Effective Tuesday, July 18, the entire Planning Office will be housed in House 7. Give us a call on the same telephone numbers plus the ones normally used for Roz Rosen - 533, 780 and 797 (voice or TTY).

TEMPORARY TELEPHONE LINE

Although Dr. Robert R. Davila assumed his new position as Vice President for MSSD/KDES on July 1, he has not yet moved into his new office, which will be located at MSSD. Until those new quarters are ready for occupancy, Dr. Davila has a temporary telephone line for the Office of the Vice President for MSSD/KDES. The number is 617.

LIBRARY NEWS

The Prince George's County Memorial Library System is pleased to present to its public a catalog, "Films for the Deaf and Hearing-Impaired." The films contained in this catalog were selected for their suitability in programming with a deaf and hearing impaired audience and/or a mixed audience of hearing impaired and hearing.

Several of the titles are captioned or signed, but most are films which are truly a visual medium and do not depend upon the audio to be understood.

All of the films are available free for public use from the Films Division of the Library or films may be reserved by calling 699-3500 (voice) or 699-9898 (TTY).

GALLAUDET COLLEGE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER/EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION. PROGRAMS AND SERVICES OFFERED BY GALLAUDET COLLEGE RECEIVE SUBSTANTIAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Gallaudet College is being visited by an increasing number of professionals from the Caribbean Region. The Jamaican Association of the Deaf is sponsoring the visits of Jeanne Robinson, Willifred Mae Hall, and Carol Mitchell. Mrs. Robinson, the Executive Officer of the JAD will be at Gallaudet for meetings during the first week of August. Mrs. Winnifred Mae Hall, teacher of deaf children and involved in teacher training, will be a participant in the Department of Administration's Special Topics Seminar on Middle Management Personnel. Ms. Mitchell, the Auditory Technician for the JAD, is enrolled in summer classes in an attempt to upgrade her skills in that field.

Ms. Gladys Browne, a teacher at the School for the Deaf in Barbados, is also on campus taking summer courses. She will continue in the fall as a student in the Counseling Department of the Graduate School. Ms. Browne specializes in parent/infant counseling.

Ms. Cecilia Thorne, a teacher at the David Rose School for Handicapped Children in Guyana, is also on campus for the summer taking a sign language course. She will be enrolled as a special student in the Dept. of Audiology of the Graduate School in the fall. Ms. Thorne is a sister of Margo George in the accounting office.

We welcome these people to the campus and look forward to interacting with them.

Dr. P. D. Ahuja, the Vice President of the All-India Federation for the Deaf, and his wife visited Gallaudet College recently. Dr. Ahuja is a lawyer before the Supreme Court of India. He became interested in the welfare of deaf people when the All-India Federation sought legal advice from him. Mrs. Ahuja is a social worker for the deaf in New Delhi.

Mr. John Phillips, the Assistant Director of Special Services for the Education Department of the State of Victoria, Australia, visited Gallaudet as a part of a fact finding mission for his government. Mr. Phillips spent time discussing administration, support services, development of facilities and education of multiply handicapped deaf children with officials at KDES, MSSD and the College.
