HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

TUTOR WANTED

If you or someone you know live in or near Anne Arundel County and would be interested in tutoring an intermediate student from Jan. through May, please contact Norine Dickerson at 647-8342.

CLOWN CLASS

Beginning Feb. 4 through March 11, 1979 the Washington United Methodist Church for the Deaf will sponsor clown classes to be held at 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. each Sunday evening at 7001 New Hampshire Ave., Takoma Park, Md. The cost for these classes is $15.00.

SIGNS FOR THE STAFF

You all probably noticed the error in the last issue of OTG relating to sign language courses for staff members and the cost. The actual cost for the courses is $25.00 and not $250.00. Sorry for any inconvenience this has caused.

The Office of Sign Language Programs is also offering a new class designed for students who may want to continue in the program but have already completed all the courses offered. Post Advanced Conversational Sign Language II is the name of the course. This course is not credited and costs $50.00. The Prerequisite is Advanced II with a grade of C plus or better or equivalent.

If you are interested in this class, pick up an application form in the Office of Sign Language Programs, College Hall, Room 213. Maximum enrollment is 20.

PHOTO CONTEST

The Prince George's County Memorial Library System will hold a Young Adult Photo Contest at the Hyattsville Branch Library January 8 - March 3, 1979. The open judging will take place on March 20 at 8:00 p.m. and everyone is welcome. The judging will be interpreted for the hearing impaired. For further information call 779-9330 (v) or 779-0040 (tty).

TDI MOVES

The TDI Board of Directors met at Atlanta, Georgia, on Sept. 23 - 24, and in a major decision voted unanimously to move the TDI office operations from its present site in downtown Washington, D.C., in space provided by the Alexander Graham Bell Chapter of the Telephone Pioneers of America, to Halex House, located just outside of Washington. The new address is 814 Thayer Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910 and the phone number is 301-589-3006.

PERFORMANCE BY HOLLY NEAR

Holly Near, songwriter and vocalist will appear with pianist J.T. Thomas in Washington at Gaston Hall (Georgetown University campus, Healy Bldg.) on Saturday, Jan. 13, 1979 for two shows at 7 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. The 7 o'clock show is a community concert and everyone is welcome. Holly will present a wide range of her repertoire including songs written and performed while touring internationally during the anti-war movement.

The 10:30 show will be especially for women and will focus on the celebration of women's identification. There will be signing for the hearing impaired, childcare provided free, and wheelchair accessibility. For more information contact G.T.U. at 723-6744. Tickets are available in advance for $4.00 and $4.50 at the door.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Bill Varrieur and Debbie Sonnenstrahl will be serving on the Advisory Committee for Programs for the Handicapped at the Smithsonian Institution.

--Richard White, KDES counselor, recently conducted a workshop at the New York State School for the Deaf in Rome, N.Y.
The workshop, held Nov. 3, addressed the issue of "What Should We expect From Our Deaf Children." Evaluation feedback from the workshop participants indicates the effort was very successful.

--An article entitled "A Teacher's Notes on PL 94-142 ('Education for All Handicapped Children')" written by Mark Goldfarb was selected for publication in the current issue of Disabled USA, a publication of the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped. Mark is an instructor in the Middle School Dept. of KDES.

DEPUTY DOSS SAYS

Necessity is considered the mother of invention. But it can also be the motivation for crime. Don't tempt it.
Lock it up or take it with you--if it's yours.

STAFF ELECTIONS TO COLLEGE COUNCIL

The revised College Council by-laws
call for the election of seven staff representatives and seven alternates.
Five representatives will be elected from the College at-large, and MSSD and KDES will elect one representative each. All representatives must be full-time employees who have at least one year's service.
Representatives will serve a two-year term,
and the first meeting of the new Council will be held in early February.

Nomination forms and a detailed information memo will be distributed to all staff members with the January 9 paycheck. The election will be held January 23 and 24.
