AMONG OURSELVES

--Henry Wyatt, M.D., addressed a group of interns, residents and staff pediatricians at Pediatric Grand Rounds at Georgetown University Hospital on May 11, 1979. His topic related to the delivery of health care to the hearing impaired.

--Danette Kauffman recently received her master's degree in Public Information from American University's School of Business Administration.

--Sy DuBow addressed the Florida Conference of Circuit Judges on the problems of deaf people in the judicial system at St. Augustine, Fla., on May 8. Sy also discussed the responsibilities of state agencies and recipients to hearing-impaired people under section 504 to Michigan's 504 coordinators in Lansing, Michigan, on April 25.

--Tom Berg and wife, Betty, were honored guests at the Florida School for the Deaf's annual Athletic Banquet-Awards Night in St. Augustine, Fla., on May 12th, sponsored by the Booster Club. Tom was the guest speaker and talked to a group of some 400 people on the topic "Do Your Very Best." Many former Gallaudet graduates and friends were present.

--Della and Max Fitz-Gerald have accepted an invitation from the famous sex researchers, Masters and Johnson, to join their staff as clinical trainees for one year. While in St. Louis, they will also be working as consultants to the Central Institute for the Deaf.

The Fitz-Gerald's wish to extend their very best wishes to all of the Gallaudet community for a most successful and prosperous coming school year.

ON THE GREEN is published each week by the Office of Alumni & Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College.
